In considering church school admission applications, priority is given to those who can prove a long-standing and regular pattern of attendance for worship at a public place of worship as defined in the school’s Admission Policy. Some schools make a distinction between attendance of Parent(s)/Carer(s) and attendance of the child (see the school’s Admissions Policy).

The Parent(s)/Carer(s) should complete the details below at EITHER Section 1(a) OR 1(b) and then ask their Minister of Religion to countersign the form as Section 2.

SECTION 1

Either (a) I/We the parent/carer(s) of __________________________ have worshipped at the Church of ___________________________________________________________ for _______________ for the last _______________

(insert frequency – e.g. twice a month) (insert length of time – e.g. two years)

Signature (parent/carer) ___________________________ Date ________________

Or (b) My/Our child (name of child) __________________________ has worshipped at the Church of ___________________________________________________________ for at least _______________ for the last _______________

(insert frequency – e.g. twice weekly) (insert length of time – e.g. six months)

Signature (parent/carer) ___________________________ Date ________________

Please check Admissions Policy of school.

I confirm that the above statement is correct.
